1. How to get to Porto

Arriving in Porto

Porto is served by the Francisco Sá Carneiro International Airport (OPO), which is located about 11 km (7 miles) north of the city center. The airport is used by many of the major regular airlines, as well as low cost airlines. In case you arrive through Lisbon Airport ( which is more than 300 km from Porto), you can either get a 45 minutes connection flight to Porto with TAP Portugal (www.flytap.com) or the low cost Ryanair (www.ryanair.com), or you can catch a fast train (train AP) that departs every 1-2 hours and takes about 2h45min (www.cp.pt/passageiros/en/). To reach the train station, just take the Metro from Lisbon airport to train station Lisboa-Oriente The train to Porto stops at Porto-Campanhã train station, where you can catch the Metro to Trindade station.

Travelling from Porto airport to the city

The Metro of Porto (mixed surface and underground system) operates five different lines labeled from A to E and these lines are differentiated using colors. Porto Airport is served by Line E (violet). The airport stop is located near the terminal and the Metro departs every 20 minutes. The trip to the city center takes 26 minutes. You can buy the rechargeable ticket (Andante) at the automatic ticket machine at the station (Z4 ticket 1.85€ + 0.60€ the first time you by the Andante rechargeable ticket). Leave in Trindade to change to line D (yellow) to go the meeting venue or nearby hotels (line D towards Hospital São João, stop IPO station) or to go to the main city square nearby most other recommended hotels (line D towards Santo Ovídio, stop Aliados station, just one stop from Trindade). If you change Metro line you can use the same ticket within 1 hour, but you must validate it every time before entering the Metro. See maps below. More information and a journey planner can be found here: <http://www.metrodoporto.pt/en>.

In case you prefer, taxi services are available outside of the arrivals hall of the airport. Travelling from the airport to the city center by taxi takes 20 to 30 minutes and costs 20/25€.
